

Order of Service

Please stand as the Bible is brought into church.

come.

l: 126 "O come, O come Immanuel" Verses 1,2,5 & 6.

Our Offerings will be taken up during this carol.

ication of Offerings.

reading Isaiah Chapter 9 Verses 2, 6 & 7.

ers and Lord's Prayer.

ing of the 3rd Advent Candle – "Hope".

reading Luke Chapter 1 Verses 26 to 38.

l: 139 "The Angel Gabriel from Heaven came".

y Reminiscences "Joseph & Theodore".

reading Luke Chapter 2 Verses 1 to 7.

or Solo "The Holy Boy" - Christmas Carol by John Ireland.

onversation "Joseph & Mary".

reading Luke Chapter 2 Verses 8 to 14.

l: 163 "Angels from the realms of glory".

reading Luke Chapter 2 Verses 16 to 20.

l: 145 "O little town of Bethlehem".

iniscence "The Shepherd's Wife".

or Solo "In the bleak mid-winter" - Music by Richard Lloyd.

reading Matthew Chapter 2 Verses 1 to 12.

iniscence "The Gatekeeper".

l: 153 "On Christmas night all Christians sing".

reading Matthew Chapter 2 Verses 16 to 19.

iniscence "The Innkeeper".

m "Once in Judah's least-known city".

Prayers.

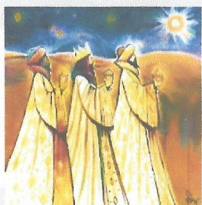

l: 161 "Good Christians all rejoice"

Blessing with three fold sung Amen.

se remain standing until the Bible has been taken out of the Church.

& Coffee will be served in the South Transept after the Service.

ry warm welcome to all visiting our Church this evening especially our ds from Morpeth Methodist Church joining us for this joint re-telling of Christmas story with members of both churches taking part.

A very warm welcome too to Richard Pinkstone, our Tenor Soloist, accompanied by Ken Irvine (Piano) and our thanks to our Organist Andrew Hamnett for the music.

We also thank our Flower Committee for the decoration of the Church and are most grateful to contributors to the Tree Festival for allowing us to keep some of the trees in the Church to enhance our Worship. The trees are being dismantled and removed after tomorrow's Community Carol Service.

Tomorrow Evening Monday 17th December at 6.30 pm our Annual Morpeth Community Carol Service led by Revd. Dr. Carla Grosch-Miller and Revd. David Grosch Miller. The Mayor of Morpeth will be in attendance. Please come along and make this a good community event

NOTICES

Wednesday 19th December at 12.30 pm Midweek Service in the South Transept. Tea and Coffee available from Noon.

Saturday 22nd December a Community Carol Singing event is being held in the Market Square at 4.00 pm for an hour – Singers are required. Please just turn up if you are available. Music will be provided by Ellington Colliery Band with some singers from VoiceMale. See "More in Morpeth" website for further details.

Sunday 23rd December at 10.30 am Morning Worship for 4th Sunday in Advent led by our Elders.

AND At 3.30 pm Cradle Roll Service in the South Transept (Re-arranged from today)

Monday 24th December at 11.30 pm Watchnight Service led by Mrs Margery Tate with Tea & Coffee available from 11.00 pm.

Tuesday 25th December at 10.00 am Family Service for Christmas Day led by Sue Elliott & Patricia Gatherum.

Sunday 30th December at 10.30 am Morning Worship led by Revd. Dr. Carla Grosch-Miller.

