A very warm welcome to any visitors worshipping with us this morning. Our thanks to Revd. Ron Forster for leading our Worship this morning. Thanks also to our Orchestra for the music, to Anne Bennett for our flowers and to our Readers this morning.

Ron, having time to do a little research, has found that the tune 'Highwood' No 660 in Rejoice and Sing was the work of Sir Richard R Terry (1864 to 1938) who was a local lad born and raised in Ellington. After two years at Oxford he became a Choral Scholar at Cambridge and although he did not take a degree he became a respected Organist & Music Teacher.

After conversion to Catholicism he was appointed Head of Music at Downside School and became a well-known Choral Director. Later he was appointed Master of Music at Westminster Cathedral and was responsible for re-introducing much early Tudor music in churches and also the use of carols at Christmas time. He was Knighted for his services to Music in 1922.

Not bad for a local lad !!
