also to our Organist, Andrew Hamnett, orchestra for the music, to Gillian Irvine for our flowers and to our Readers this morning.

Jesus calls us here to meet him

- 1 Jesus calls us here to meet him
as through word and song and prayer we affirm God's promised presence where his people live and care.
Praise the God who keeps his promise;
praise the Son who calls us friends;
praise the Spirit who, among us,
to our hopes and fears attends.
- 2 Jesus calls us to confess him
Word of Life and Lord of All, sharer of our flesh and frailness saving all who fail or fall.
Tell his holy human story;
tell his tales that all may hear;
tell the world that Christ in glory came to earth to meet us here.
- 3 Jesus calls us to each other:
vastly different though we are;
creed and colour, class and gender neither limit nor debar.
Join the hand of friend and stranger;
join the hands of age and youth;
join the faithful and the doubter in their common search for truth.
- 4 Jesus calls us to his table rooted firm in time and space, where the church in earth and heaven finds a common meeting place.
Share the bread and wine, his body;
share the love of which we sing;
share the feast for saints and sinners hosted by our Lord and King.

Come let us sing of a wonderful love

- 1 Come let us sing of a wonderful love,
tender and true;
out of the heart of the Father above,
streaming to me and to you:
wonderful love
dwells in the heart of the Father above.
- 2 Jesus, the Saviour, this gospel to tell,
joyfully came;
came with the helpless and hopeless to dwell,
sharing their sorrow and shame;
seeking the lost,
saving, redeeming at measureless cost.
- 3 Jesus is seeking the wanderers yet;
why do they roam?
Love only waits to forgive and forget;
Home! weary wanderers, home!
Wonderful love
dwells in the heart of the Father above.
- 4 Come to my heart, O Thou wonderful love,
come and abide,
lifting my life till it rises above
envy and falsehood and pride; seeking to be
lowly and humble, a learner of Thee.

Advance Notices for the 2019 Christmas Tree Festival

Notice from Gillian Irvine, Dorothy Luke & Vivien Bennett

This year's Multiple Sclerosis Research and Relief Fund Christmas Tree Festival is being held in the Church Sanctuary during the first week of December. The Church will be set up on Wednesday 4th Dec after the Lunchtime Concert and trees will then be received and erected on Thursday 5th Dec. On Friday 6th Dec the Charity will welcome Schools, Nurseries, and Community Groups and on the Friday Evening there will be a special Event, an opportunity to see the trees at their best, musical entertainment by The Mid-Northumberland Chorus, Emma Straughan (oboe) accompanied by Ken Irvine and, of course, an opportunity to contribute to the M.S.R & R Fund. Entry to this event is free. Wine and Mince Pies will be available for a donation.

The Church will then be open to the public on the Saturday 7th December throughout the day from 10.00 am until 5.00 pm after which time many of the exhibits will be removed. Some exhibits are being retained to enhance decoration of the Church for the Nativity (Joint with Morpeth Methodists) & the Community Carol Services on 15th & 16th December respectively.

Saturday morning 7th Dec. coincides with the Ladies Coffee Club Annual Christmas Coffee Morning and Sale of Christmas decorations etc. so it is an opportunity for a good morning out. Please support these combined events and bring along your friends and neighbours.

We shall require Stewards to assist on Friday 6th & Sat 7th to welcome visitors to our Church and a rota will be put up in the Vestibule.

Notice from Vivien Bennett

Once again, we are hosting the magical Christmas Tree Festival at St George's and will require stewards to meet and greet visitors in the vestibule. I shall put a rota sheet up in November and it would be wonderful to have all the one-hour slots filled! It's a very rewarding experience to hear folks' reaction after their visit! Thank you!
